To Whom It May Concern,

I am truly honored to have been asked to write a recommendation for Demario Faison. Demario played on the varsity football team this past football season and from the very first practice, there were multiple special qualities that jumped out to me.

Demario's natural athleticism was obvious, but his instincts and his ability to learn and absorb a lot of information in a short amount of time, was most impressive to me. The moment that Demario stepped onto the football field, he quickly became the top player on the field and just as impressively, became a leader on the football team. Demario's instincts and ability to be one step ahead of his teammates and opposition were truly amazing to me. Demario leads by example, and is fiercely competitive on the football field, which breeds respect and admiration among Demario's peers. It is not too common to be able to have an intense desire to win and succeed on the field and have the ability to put the game behind you, when the game is over and move on to tackle the next task.

I've spoken mostly about Demario's athletic prowess and leadership skills, Demario's good nature and innate kindness and big smile is what draws people, kids as well as adults, to him. He has a quick smile, a sharp wit, and an upbeat personality that makes people want to be around him. Whether it is on the football field, or just around school or town, it always brings a smile to my face when I see Demario. It is obvious that Demario's personality is contagious, and his teammates feed off that.

I am consistently impressed and amazed how Demario can juggle so much and excel at mostly everything that he takes part in. Whether its school, track, baseball, or football Demario gives 100%, and strives to succeed and because of his hard work ethic and natural gifts he almost always does succeed.

I consider myself fortunate as a coach to have had the opportunity to spend so much time around Demario and watch him grow and mature before my eyes.

Sincerely,

Joseph Baker
